

The Army Emergency Relief Loan

---

The Army Emergency Relief (AER) Loan is taken on a case by case basis, depending on the Servicemember's financial situation. The AER loan is only available once during a deployment period.

The following documents are needed to apply for the AER loan:

1. Current General Power of Attorney
2. Current copy of Title 10 orders
3. Letter from the unit Commander or Family Programs Office/Family Readiness Leader (when the whole unit and the commander are deployed).
  - Letterhead
  - Military format
  - Signed by Commander with titles below
4. Current copy of LES (Leave Earnings Statement)
5. Completed AER Application
6. Documents to support the loan:
  - Completed Income and Expense Statement
  - Copy of all bills
  - Document supporting loan

Army Emergency Relief is here to tell the spouse that he/she is not alone!
