Two firms honored for support of Guard, Reserve employees

Employers among 133 semifinalists for 2012 national Freedom award.

nominations come directly from Guard and Reserve members or family members acting on their behalf. The process provides service members an opportunity to recognize employers for going above and beyond what is required by law.

THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE

Two Utah employers have been selected as semifinalists for the 2012 Secretary of Defense Employer Support Freedom Award for exceptional commitment to their Guard and Reserve employees.

This year, 133 semifinalists nationwide stood out among a pool of 3,236 nominees.

Utah's honorees are L-3 Communications CSW, Salt Lake City, which specializes in communications systems for high-performance intelligence collection, and MonaVie LLC, South Jordan, a multilevel distributor of nutritional products.

Freedom Award

These "employers have distinguished themselves for their support of their National Guard and Reserve employees, and are truly serving our nation with their extraordinary commitment," said James Rebbholz, national chairman of the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve, a Department of Defense agency.

"Their efforts are to be applauded, and ESGR salutes these patriotic employers for their special care of their Guard and Reserve employees and their families while they serve our nation in times of war and peace."

Women Tech Council teams with Disney for spring event

The Women Tech Council will present its Spring Networking Event on Thursday featuring an interactive conversation with Disney technology professionals Amber Samdahl and Scott Rench.

"Technology and Magic" also will include a networking lunch, and Samdahl and Rench will talk about media and entertainment technology trends, including how technology is used to make magic in Disney's theme parks.

Cost of the event, which runs from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., is $35 for members and $45 for nonmembers.

It will be staged on the 18th floor of the Zions Bank Tower at One South Main in Salt Lake City.

To register go to <http://springnetworkingevent2012.eventbrite.com>.

Founded in 2007, the Women Tech Council is designed to be an advocate for women who are working for technology companies or working with technology in their job roles.
