Utah National Guard Opens Herriman Fire Claims-Processing Center

HERRIMAN, Utah – The Utah National Guard opened a claims-processing center at Herriman City Hall today for residents who have experienced property or other losses and expenses as a result of the 4,300-acre fire that started on Camp Williams Sept. 19.

Staffed with military attorneys, paralegals, administrative personnel and officials from the Defense Finance Accounting Service, the center will be open every day (including the weekend) through Friday, Oct. 1, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Residents wishing to make a claim for losses or expenses should bring picture identification, proof of address in the affected area, receipts, cost estimates or other documentation to substantiate their claim.

Claims approved for reimbursement in most cases can be paid on the spot in the form of cash, check or debit card.

For specific questions on what losses or expenses can be reimbursed, please visit the claims center or contact the helpline at (801) 432-4980 or (877) 901-4980.

Media Notes: Herriman City Hall is located at 13011 S. Pioneer Street in Herriman. For questions, please contact LTC Hank McIntire at (801) 420-4778.
