Utah Guard's 142nd Military Intelligence Battalion Conducts Change of Command

CAMP WILLIAMS – The Utah National Guard's 142nd Military Intelligence Battalion will conduct a change-of-command ceremony Saturday, June 11 at 3:30 p.m. at the Camp Williams TASS complex.

At the ceremony, Lt. Col. Steve Stevens, will relinquish command to Lt. Col. Joseph Green.

Stevens, a Lehi resident, has served 23 years in the Utah National Guard. He is a veteran of Operation Iraqi Freedom, where he deployed as commander of Charlie Company, 142nd Military Intelligence Battalion, in 2003-2004.

In 2010, while commander of the 142nd, Stevens received the prestigious Rochefort Award, which recognizes individuals who have excelled in the field of cryptologic linguistics.

A resident of West Jordan, Green joined the Utah National Guard in 1993 and received his commission in 1996. In his career he has served as a platoon leader, executive officer, operations officer and company commander.

Green deployed in 2003-2004 in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom and again in 2008-2009 to Afghanistan as part of Operation Enduring Freedom. He is the full-time administrative officer for the 300th Military Intelligence Brigade.

Green assumes command of more than 400 Soldiers based in Ogden, Orem, Draper and Salt Lake City.

Media Notes: The Camp Williams TASS complex is located at 17800 S. Camp Williams (Redwood) Road at the Salt Lake-Utah County line. On the day of the event, please contact Maj. Brian Wood at (801) 259-3933 for assistance.
