Cities in Central and Southern Utah Sign Community Covenants in Support of Military

DRAPER, Utah – Cities in Central and Southern Utah will hold Community Covenant-signing ceremonies with the Utah National Guard Thursday, July 4, and Saturday, July 6, respectively.

These ceremonies will demonstrate a formal commitment in an effort to bring both local and military leaders together to more effectively recognize the contributions of cities and servicemembers.

The overall goal of the Community Covenant program is to educate local leaders on the challenges that servicemembers and their families experience in all phases of deployment (before, during and after), provide them with information on programs available to help military family members and create a dialogue with the Utah National Guard to ensure that communities can meet the needs of servicemembers, veterans and their families.

Each Community Covenant is uniquely tailored so communities can help serve those who serve. Here are the details on this week's Community Covenant signings:

- Enterprise – Officials from Enterprise will sign a Community Covenant Thursday, July 4, at 10 a.m. at the Enterprise Town Hall.
- Salina – Officials from Salina will sign a Community Covenant Thursday, July 4, at 10 a.m. at Salina Middle School.
- Fillmore and Millard County – Officials from Fillmore and Millard County will sign individual Community Covenants Thursday, July 4, at 1 p.m. at Fillmore City Park. Utah Guard Adjutant General Maj. Gen. Jeff Burton will also attend the ceremony.
- Scofield – Officials from Scofield will sign a Community Covenant at Scofield City Park Saturday, July 6, at 4 p.m.

Media are invited to cover these events. For more information please contact Capt. David Jones at (435) 632-7729.
