Camp Williams Centennial Celebration and Open House

DRAPER, Utah – Utah Gov. Gary Herbert and Utah Guard leader are scheduled to speak at the Camp Williams centennial celebration and open house scheduled Saturday in conjunction with the Iron Will races in Bluffdale.

Gov. Herbert and Maj. Gen. Jeff Burton, adjutant general of the Utah National Guard, will speak prior to the cannon-fire start of the Iron Will races at 7:45 a.m. celebrating Camp Williams 100 years of service.

The public is welcome to the open house events, which will include police, fire and military displays as well as kids' races and obstacle course, bounce houses, food and music.

The Utah National Guard, cities adjacent to Camp Williams, KUTV2, and Evolo Events have teamed up to host the Iron Will during the celebration offering seven different events in mountain biking, cycling, and running. Registration is still available at www.ironwillrace.com.

The event will run from 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. May 17 at 17800 Camp Williams Road, Bluffdale, Utah 84065. Entrance and parking at the open house are free of charge. Race entrance and food are available for purchase.

For more information please contact the Lt. Col. Steven Fairbourn at (801) 716-9209.
